*We are deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Dr. Ghassan Khalil, one of the dearest friends of the Actors Guild of Parkersburg, who passed away on July 12, 2011 at the age of seventy-seven. Dr. Khalil and his wife Genevieve have been long-time season ticket holders, and are the namesake behind the Khalil Awards, given each season for outstanding performances on our stage. Our actors have always looked forward to hearing his boisterous “bravo!” emanating from the audience and his presence in our theatre will not soon be forgotten. Synopsis & Scenes

Ships leaving the nearby Navy yard are being sunk by enemy U-boats. Allied intelligence suspects the local USO club is unknowingly harboring Axis spies. Enter Private Joe Kilroy, a young soldier who draws a curious cartoon face everywhere he goes (and is this causing trouble!). He knows where the next Allied convoy will converge, and enemy agents will stop at nothing to learn his secret. The action builds to an exciting finale that takes place during a wild radio broadcast at the USO club.

Director's Note

I HAVE BEEN AROUND the Guild for a long time now, but this is my first adventure with Guild Builders. Through the years, I have been asked several times to be a part of the program, but as a father of young kids, I wanted to wait until they were old enough to be a part of it as well. So, this year we are all here! My wife is serving as the assistant director, my two girls are part of the cast, and my 4 year old is here driving everyone crazy!

Last year, I was able to bring my 4th grade students to one of the school performances of Robin Hood the Musical. We dressed in our "theater clothes", talked about theater etiquette, and enjoyed a wonderful performance. Many of my students had never seen live theater before and this was an incredible opportunity for them. Even at the end of the school year, they were still talking about it. This was also something that motivated me to accept the director's position for Kilroy Was Here.

From the onset I could tell that this was an exceptional group of young people. I could also tell that it was a group of people that wanted to be a part of the program. This has shown true in their auditions and throughout the rehearsal process. They have been eager to try new things, challenge themselves, and work for hours to "get it right". Bottom line... they have impressed me!

Something else that impresses me is the organization of the program itself. The amount of time that goes into scheduling alone is something that needs to be recognized. Barbara Ream and her staff have gone above and beyond to make sure that every student has something worthwhile to do on every Saturday of the program. Ranging from all kinds of theater skills to visiting the local veterans' museum, the kids have learned so much. The Guild Builders staff needs to be commended on this effort.

In a time when the arts are being pulled from our schools, I believe that the Guild Builders program is valuable to the Actors Guild of Parkersburg and to our community. Without this program, some of these students may not have had the opportunity to explore and develop their talents. This is evident by the number of students who go through the program who have landed starring roles in other productions at the Guild, local high school and college productions and other theaters in the area. (By the way, the lead in the upcoming production of Hairspray is a former Guild Builder!)

I am very thankful for the opportunity I've had to direct Kilroy Was Here. These kids have been a blast and I hope our audiences give them the credit they so deserve.

A Letter from the President

TOM BROKAW CALLED THEM “The Greatest Generation.” Others have labeled them “The G.I. Generation.” Regardless of the term you prefer, there’s no question that the men and women who were raised during the Great Depression and went on to support the efforts of World War II, both at home and abroad, are a generation that deserves recognition.

I believe it is particularly fitting that our Guild Builders program has chosen to honor this generation by presenting Kilroy Was Here on the Actors Guild stage. While as many as ninety years separates that “Greatest Generation” from our youngest societal members (“Generation Z”), their lessons of courage, service, and commitment are just as pertinent now as they were decades ago. Barbara Ream, Director of the Guild Builders Program, has ensured that those lessons were taught to the Guild Builders participants through various “contacts with history” such as discussion of rationing, displays of veteran memorabilia, and guest speakers. After the show, please “salute” Barbara for bridging the generational gap in this manner.

For now, sit back, relax, and enjoy this USO-style musical tribute to “The Greatest Generation.” And if you happen to know anything about “Kilroy Was Here” graffiti appearing all across the United States and Europe during the war effort, I think some historians would love to hear from you!

Don't Say No to the USO

MILLIONS OF TIMES each year at hundreds of locations around the world, the USO lifts the spirits of America's troops and their families. A nonprofit, congressionally chartered, private organization, the USO relies on the generosity of individuals, organizations and corporations to support its activities. The USO is not part of the U.S. government, but is recognized by the Department of Defense, Congress and President of the United States, who serves as Honorary Chairman of the USO.

The United Service Organizations was founded in 1941 in response to a request from President Franklin D. Roosevelt to provide morale and recreation services to U.S. uniformed military personnel. This request brought together six civilian organizations (the Salvation Army, YMCA, YWCA, National Catholic Community Service, National Travelers Aid Association and the National Jewish Welfare Board) under one umbrella to support U.S. troops. Roosevelt said he wanted "these private organizations to handle the on-leave recreation of the men in the armed forces."

After being formed in 1941 in response to World War II, "centers were established quickly... in churches, barns, railroad cars, museums, castles, beach clubs, and log cabins." Most centers offered recreational activities, such as holding dances and showing movies. And there were the well-known free coffee and doughnuts. Some USO bases provided a haven for spending a quiet moment alone or writing a letter home, while others offered spiritual guidance and made childcare available for military wives.

But the organization became mostly known for its live performances called Camp Shows, through which the entertainment industry helped boost the morale of its servicemen and women. At its high point in 1944, the USO had established more than 3,000 clubs, and curtains were rising on USO shows 700 times a day. From 1941 to 1947, the USO presented more than 400,000 performances, featuring entertainers such as Bing Crosby, Judy Garland, Humphrey Bogart, Lauren Bacall, Frank Sinatra, Laurel and Hardy, The Marx Brothers, Jack Benny, James Stewart, The Rockettes, Fred Astaire,

The Andrews Sisters, Lucille Ball, Glenn Miller, Martha Raye, and most famously, Bob Hope.

Over time, the USO has evolved, developing new programs and services to meet the ever-changing needs of the troops and their families, while holding fast to the original mission. Every day, as our men and women in uniform put their families and their futures on hold to protect our country, USO staff around the world are doing everything possible to let them know their service and sacrifice are deeply appreciated.

“The USO is the way Americans lift the spirits of our troops. More than 2.5 million men and women wear the uniform of our nation’s military, with most serving far from home. The USO serves as a home away from home for them and their families. Your generosity makes this possible.” - Sloan D. Gibson, USO President and CEO.

The Legend of Kilroy

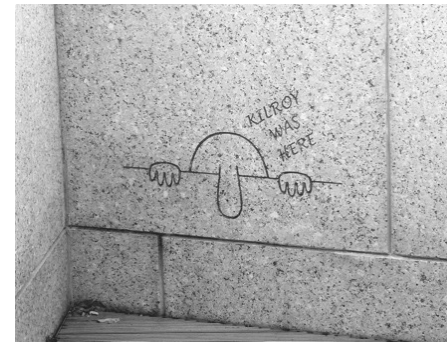

KILROY WAS HERE is credited to James J. Kilroy, a shipyard inspector during WWII from Halifax, Massachusetts. He wrote the words on bulkheads to show that he had been there and had inspected the riveting in the newly constructed ship. To the troops in those ships, however, it was a complete mystery — all they knew for sure was that he had "been there first." As a joke, they began placing the graffiti wherever they (the US forces) went, claiming it was already there when they arrived.

James J. Kilroy does not, however, take credit for the drawing that is part of the famous graffiti. No one knows who put the writing and the drawing together. Kilroy became the US super-GI who always got there first — wherever GIs went. It became a challenge to place the logo in the most unlikely places, providing fun and comfort to homesick soldiers. The tradition continued in every US military operation throughout and following WWII. Even so, civilians at home were rarely aware of Kilroy until...

In 1946 the Transit Company of America held a contest offering a prize of a real trolley car to the person who could prove himself to be the "real" Kilroy. Almost forty men stepped forward to make that claim, but James Kilroy brought along officials from the shipyard and some of the riveters to help prove his authenticity. James Kilroy won the prize of the trolley car, which he gave to his nine children as a Christmas gift and set it up in their front yard for a playhouse.

Kilroy was not left out of the World War II Memorial when it was built in Washington, DC. However, visitors do have to look closely to find him.

The legend of Kilroy continues today. Here is a letter written by a Marine stationed in Iraq:

Dear Editor,

I found Kilroy, He is alive and well and apparently in Iraq. I found him on the side of an old Iraqi aircraft hangar in Al Taqaddum Airbase in Iraq. Al Taqaddum is situated about seven miles from Fallujah and thirty-five miles west of Baghdad. He's been there ever since we showed up. No one knows how he got there either. They all say they always remember Kilroy being on the side of the hangar.

The Bayley Award

The “Bayley” was established by the Actors Guild with a two-fold purpose: first, to honor one of our “founding mothers” and most influential members – Suzanne Bayley. The other function of the Bayley Award is for our membership to express an annual, public “thank you” to an individual, group or business in the community for services to the Guild above and beyond the call of neighborly duty. Our most recent Bayley Award was granted to the Khalil Family.

The Khalil Awards

For many years Dr. Ghassan Khalil and his family have made an annual contribution to ensure the continuation of live theater in our community and have championed the importance of the arts in our lives. The Khalil Awards were established to honor the Outstanding Production and the Outstanding Performance of each season. An anonymous panel consisting of persons who have seen every show of the previous season selects the recipients of these awards.

The Actors Guild of Parkersburg would like to congratulate director Barbara Full, music director Greg Strauss and the entire cast and crew of RENT as the Best Show for the 2010-2011 season. Receiving the honor for Best Performance was Dave Prather, for his roles in The Diary of Anne Frank and The Boys Next Door.

The Grace-Marie Merrill Award

Melody Carson is the most recent recipient of the Grace-Marie Merrill Award for exceptional volunteerism to the Actors Guild of Parkersburg. The award is named for a former drama teacher at Parkersburg High School who was an early member of the Guild, where she acted in and directed plays.

Her knack was making us feel special.
Her gift was her time, her touch and her gentle way.

At Vaughan Funeral Home you provide the fond memories, we provide a memory service in honor of all the laughter, smiles and tears that made your loved one so special.
