A Letter from the President

Here we are, close to the midpoint of the Actors Guild's 60th season with two amazing shows and a celebration already behind us, and we still have so much to look forward to as we stand at the beginning of a new year. So often we make promises to ourselves that we rarely keep; thus, the resolutions we fail to uphold. One thing we at the Actors Guild try to maintain is a variety of quality entertainment. Our directors, and actors, and production staff, and technical staff all strive for the best when showcasing local talent.

We also couldn't do what we do without the kindness and generosity of our community. This year we celebrate one of our greatest champions, Mr. Jeff Baughan, with one of the Guild's highest honors, the Bayley Award. Jeff has donated his skills by photographing our productions and has given so much of his time. His generosity has allowed us to archive our history, a history of which he is a part.

In case you hadn't noticed, our 60th season has a unifying theme of plays with television and/or movie ties. The 39 Steps is no exception, having been one of Alfred Hitchcock's early British films about a man on the run from spies to clear his name of the accusation of murder. (Precursor to North By Northwest? I wonder.) However, I think you will find that this play adaptation of the classic suspense movie is a lovingly hilarious sendup of the genre. And I think both Hitchcock and John Buchan (the novelist from whose work the movie was adapted) would both be laughing with us as we watch four actors attempt dozens of characters on the run across the landscape (and the dialects) of the United Kingdom.

Will our brave hero prove his innocence? Will he make it to the end of the play alive? Will romance blossom under the most unlikely circumstances? Will the law or the spy syndicate catch him first? Will I ever stop asking questions? Yes, but when the lights go down, keep your eye on your fellow audience members. They'll all be laughing at the crazy misadventures on the stage, and so will you!

DAVE PRATHER
President of the Board of Trustees
